EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND: THE ROYAL SCOTS CLUB

Opened in 1921, The Royal Scots Club was conceived as a club for all military ranks to honor the memory of the 11,162 Royal Scots who had been killed in The Great War. Today, it provides “the charm of a country house hotel, with a cosy club atmosphere.” No matter what you are doing in Scotland’s capital, you couldn’t ask for a more convenient and spectacular location. It is five minutes from the city center’s shops, bars, and restaurants, 30 minutes from Edinburgh Airport, and walking distance to all of Edinburgh’s tourist highlights.

Dining + Amenities

The Royal Scots Club prides itself in delivering an exquisite dining experience. Restaurant menus are created to utilize as much local produce and traditional Scottish flavor as possible.

The ABERCROMBY DINING ROOM is an elegant space with a magnificent view overlooking Queen Street Gardens. Experience sensational Scottish cuisine in a splendid Georgian dining room and complement it with a bottle or two from the wine cellar.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are served in the Dining Room.

The main hub of life at the club is THE COCKTAIL BAR & LOUNGE. The bar offers a wide range of wines, spirits, draft and bottled beers. A comprehensive bar food menu is available until 3pm. Relax and enjoy a light lunch and coffee or a glass of wine on the balcony, or sit by the fire in the winter.

THE MEMBERS LOUNGE is beautifully decorated and welcoming. It features a sitting room ambience, a large selection of daily newspapers and monthly magazines, and complimentary coffee and tea. Bar food is available to order from the Cocktail Bar.

THE MEMBERS’ LIBRARY is a quiet retreat filled with exquisite décor and furnishings. It features a central table, individual desks, and a large selection of books.
